

Empowering Your Workforce with Better Health & Wellbeing

Supporting Healthier, Happier, More Productive Teams

For over 40 years, YorkTest has partnered with organisations across the UK to enhance employee wellbeing, reduce absenteeism, and create healthier workplace cultures. As businesses look for meaningful, evidence-driven benefits that truly support employee needs, YorkTest has become a trusted leader in corporate health testing.

We understand that today's employees are prioritising their wellbeing more than ever. By providing clear, actionable insights into how food affects their health, we empower individuals to make positive lifestyle changes that improve how they feel—both at work and at home.

Our corporate programmes deliver a complete food intolerance and allergy testing solution, tailored specifically for modern workplaces seeking to invest in meaningful, preventative wellbeing support.

Your Partner in Employee Health & Wellbeing

What YorkTest Offers Your Business

Most employers spend a large proportion of their budget on rising claims for lifestyle related illness. YorkTest corporate benefit drives lifestyle changes through providing valuable information to motivate individuals to make changes to their diet and lifestyle to gain a better sense of health and wellbeing.

Streamlined Health & Wellbeing Support

YorkTest integrates seamlessly alongside existing benefit schemes, including Private Medical Insurance, to give employees affordable access to premium food intolerance and allergy testing.

Expert Guidance & Insight

Your business will benefit from expert support, including detailed corporate health insight reports, webinars, and optional on-site presence to boost engagement.

Cost-Effective Wellbeing Solutions

We provide market-leading pricing to ensure your wellbeing strategy delivers exceptional value without unnecessary cost.

Enhancing Productivity & Engagement

Many employees experience persistent symptoms like IBS, digestive discomfort, skin issues, headaches, and low energy, affecting performance. Helping them understand how food may influence these symptoms can improve wellbeing, focus, and productivity.

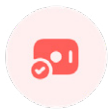

Flexible Options for Every Workforce

Whether you support employees via salary deduction, voluntary benefits, or company-funded options, our solutions adapt to your structure.

Food Intolerance & Allergy Testing Your Employees Will Value

As pioneers in food intolerance testing, YorkTest has built a strong reputation for engagement, with launch participation often exceeding 30% within corporate settings.

The Benefits to Your Business

Transparent Pricing

No hidden fees, no subscriptions, no cost per head, just a simple, clear structure designed for ease and confidence.

Boost in Workplace Morale & Wellbeing

When employees feel their best, the whole business benefits, from stronger culture to improved performance.

Industry Expertise You Can Trust

YorkTest is the only provider offering specialist food intolerance and allergy testing for the corporate market. We support public clients, practitioners, and businesses with reliable testing, great service, and comprehensive aftercare.
