Submission	Jerusalem, one of the world’s most ancient and greatest cities, is home to people from all walks of Israeli life. The Hebrew University of Jerusalem (HUJI), with a student body as diverse as Jerusalem itself, is a globally leading academic institution that is integral to the city and its societal landscape. We believe that diversity is fundamental to achieving excellence, and support our varied student body using institution-wide efforts orchestrated by the Office of the Dean of Students (ODS). The ODS works closely with academic and administrative units to provide inclusive, tailor-made student support. HUJI offers far-reaching support for minority student populations, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - For international Students: Practical orientation upon arrival; psychological services in English; a dedicated team of counsellors, available 24/7. -For Arab and ultra-Orthodox Jewish Students: Subsidized psychological care (Hebrew or Arabic); financial aid and scholarships; mentoring by faculty and students.
