Submission	Ravinder is an approachable and engaged supervisor whose mentorship of her students is outstanding. Her strong philosophy linking research to teaching means she enthuses and motivates students at all levels to become involved in research. With over 20 years supervisory experience in 4 different countries, much of it with international researchers, Ravinder brings unique insights and perspectives to bear on the journeys her current students take. Ravinder regards her PGR students as a part of her extended family and she makes a personal commitment to supporting them pastorally and to enabling them to build skills for their future careers and employability. Her passion for her subject is always at the fore of her work and she places high value on the time which she spends with doctoral students. She brings this passion to her Directorship of Postgraduate Research and to wider activities to enhance the doctoral experience at the university.
