

THE AWARDS 2020

Outstanding Technician of the Year

Institution name	David de la Haye, Newcastle University
Submission title or project name
Nominee/key personnel	David de la Haye, Music Studio Technician, Newcastle University
URL	https://daviddelahaye.co.uk/
Submission	David de la Haye is part of the Papin Award winning Technical Team within the School of Arts and Cultures at Newcastle University. David supports practice-based modules, generously sharing his passion for creative approaches to sound recording. David has been instrumental in his support of research projects including Dippy on Tour, Mapping Contemporary Art in Heritage Experience and Being Human festival commission. David contributes to and pushes discussions around technicians roles and visibility. Whether as lead of Newcastle University' technical network events group, membership of ISTs creative practitioner pilot or supporting large scale public events. David's role-model behaviour has been celebrated at Newcastle University' celebrating success events and awarded our Spotlight prize. David was also selected to represent our vision and strategy campaign. David is also the first technician at Newcastle University to receive research funding via a successful Pioneer Award; his project blending marine engineering, citizen-science and sonic arts.