

THE AWARDS 2020

Outstanding Entrepreneurial University

Institution name	Royal Agricultural University
Submission title or project name	An embedded entrepreneurship eco-system – combining/integrating co- and intracurricular learning for students.
Nominee/key personnel	Katy Duke, Head of Enterprise; Dr David Bozward, Head of School of Business and Entrepreneurship; Matthew Draycott, Senior Lecturer Entrepreneurship
URL	www.cotswoldhills.org.uk
Submission	The Royal Agricultural University, founded 175 years ago, is a small specialist university serving the international agri-food sector. Over 14 years the RAU has created an award-winning enterprise ecosystem which supports all students and graduates to develop enterprising skills and entrepreneurial ventures. Delivered via our robust extra-curricula offering structured on our Think, Try, Launch, Grow framework, as well as the university's three social enterprises which now have a range of 10 products listed in over 100 retail outlets. The vast array of activities on offer have resulted in a thriving culture of enterprise and entrepreneurship which has generated numerous start-up businesses across the world.