

Rehabilitation and education of prisoners Or. Saad Shaheen Hammadi; Dr. Hussein K. Abdul-Sada; Dr. Firas H. Abdul Hassan; Dr. Abdul-Kareem A. Auda; Dr. Nadwa Hilal Jawda; Dr. Batool G Alnahy; Dr.Maeda M Mohee Dr. Falah A Hashim; Dr. Hussein A Hashem. URL https://en.zahra.uobasrah.edu.iq/news/9617 Submission Specialists at the University of Basrah conducted a series of studies on the importance of integrating prisoners into society through integrated rehabilitation programs. The programs enabled prisoners to complete their studies, work inside the prison, and prepared them for work in the community, following release. Studies at the university have proven that the number of prisoners who are returned to prison was large due to the lack of suitable work for them after their release. In addition that, many prisoners have untreated psychological problems. For the project that the University of Basrah conducted in Basrah Centre Prison, school classes were set up and many prisoners will complete their university study online in Basrah University. Worksho cover a range of professional skills, including electrician training, furniture making, sewir	L	AWARDS ASIA 2022 eadership and Management Team of the Year
Nominee/key personnel Dr. Saad Shaheen Hammadi; Dr. Hussein K. Abdul-Sada; Dr. Firas H. Abdul Hassan; Dr. Abdul-Kareem A. Auda; Dr. Nadwa Hilal Jawda; Dr. Batool G Alnahy; Dr. Maeda M Mohee Dr. Falah A Hashim; Dr. Hussein A Hashem. URL https://en.zahra.uobasrah.edu.iq/news/9617 Submission Specialists at the University of Basrah conducted a series of studies on the importance of integrating prisoners into society through integrated rehabilitation programs. The programs enabled prisoners to complete their studies, work inside the prison, and prepared them for work in the community, following release. Studies at the university have proven that the number of prisoners who are returned to prison was large due to the lack of suitable work for them after their release. In addition that, many prisoners have untreated psychological problems. For the project that the University of Basrah conducted in Basrah Centre Prison, school classes were set up and many prisoners will complete their university study online in Basrah University. Worksho cover a range of professional skills, including electrician training, furniture making, sewir	Institution name	University of Basrah
Abdul-Kareem A. Auda; Dr. Nadwa Hilal Jawda; Dr. Batool G Alnahy; Dr. Maeda M Mohee Dr. Falah A Hashim; Dr. Hussein A Hashem. URL https://en.zahra.uobasrah.edu.iq/news/9617 Submission Specialists at the University of Basrah conducted a series of studies on the importance of integrating prisoners into society through integrated rehabilitation programs. The programs enabled prisoners to complete their studies, work inside the prison, and prepared them for work in the community, following release. Studies at the university have proven that the number of prisoners who are returned to prison was large due to the lack of suitable work for them after their release. In addition that, many prisoners have untreated psychological problems. For the project that the University of Basrah conducted in Basrah Centre Prison, school classes were set up and many prisoners will complete their university study online in Basrah University. Worksho cover a range of professional skills, including electrician training, furniture making, sewir	Submission title or project name	Rehabilitation and education of prisoners
Specialists at the University of Basrah conducted a series of studies on the importance of integrating prisoners into society through integrated rehabilitation programs. The programs enabled prisoners to complete their studies, work inside the prison, and prepared them for work in the community, following release. Studies at the university have proven that the number of prisoners who are returned to prison was large due to the lack of suitable work for them after their release. In addition that, many prisoners have untreated psychological problems. For the project that the University of Basrah conducted in Basrah Centre Prison, school classes were set up and many prisoners will complete their university study online in Basrah University. Worksho cover a range of professional skills, including electrician training, furniture making, sewing	Nominee/key personnel	Abdul-Kareem A. Auda; Dr. Nadwa Hilal Jawda; Dr. Batool G Alnahy; Dr.Maeda M Mohee; integrating prisoners into society through integrated rehabilitation programs. The programs enabled prisoners to complete their studies, work inside the prison, and prepared them for work in the community, following release. Studies at the university have proven that the number of prisoners who are returned to prison was large due to the lack of suitable work for them after their release. In addition that, many prisoners have untreated psychological problems. For the project that the University of Basrah conducted in Basrah Centre Prison, school classes were set up and many prisoners will complete their university study online in Basrah University. Worksho cover a range of professional skills, including electrician training, furniture making, sewing	URL	https://en.zahra.uobasrah.edu.iq/news/9617
and hairdressing. All these activities were officially recognised as valuable.		integrating prisoners into society through integrated rehabilitation programs. The programs enabled prisoners to complete their studies, work inside the prison, and prepared them for work in the community, following release. Studies at the university have proven that the number of prisoners who are returned to prison was large due to the lack of suitable work for them after their release. In addition to that, many prisoners have untreated psychological problems. For the project that the University of Basrah conducted in Basrah Centre Prison, school classes were set up and many prisoners will complete their university study online in Basrah University. Workshop cover a range of professional skills, including electrician training, furniture making, sewing