

THE Awards 2019 – Business School of the Year

Institution/Nominee	Hertfordshire Business School, University of Hertfordshire
Submission	Hertfordshire Business School (HBS) enjoyed a very successful 2017/18 academic year, with graduate employability, NSS and PTES data above the sector mean. HBS also achieved two major international re-accreditations for EPAS and AMBA. The Centre for Social Enterprise was awarded a grant and KEEP+ funding and the school provided business books for a refugee camp in Rwanda. The school also developed and launched innovative two-year postgraduate programmes (including one-year work experience) for the international market and three innovative postgraduate degree apprenticeships. HBS has a strong focus on international activities, hosting its 14th annual Europe Week with a range of teaching and cultural activities with international partners, engaging in international collaborative research on the gig economy, as well as a major international ESRC research project. HBS continues to build its reputation as a leading regional school with a growing national and international profile.