

Rapid7 named a Leader in the 2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Security Information and Event Management (SIEM)

Rapid7 is thrilled to be recognized as a Leader in the 2021 Gartner Magic Quadrant for SIEM. The Magic Quadrant is a framework for evaluating technology players in specific markets. It works along two axes: completeness of vision and ability to execute. Rapid7’s placement is a reflection of our deep commitment to partnering with customers to resolve real pain points on their journey to successful detection and response.

InsightIDR: Driving Efficiency for Security Teams

Today’s security teams face challenges like never before: sprawling attack surfaces, proliferation of data, noisy alerts, and a widening security-resource gap. Creating new efficiencies is the only way to drive successful detection and response in today’s complex ecosystems.

With InsightIDR, Rapid7 customers see immediate value and return on investment thanks to:

- Simplified SecOps to elevate outcomes by empowering analysts to be experts with our easy, lightweight deployment
- Transformational security that unlocks visibility and detection coverage across the entire IT environment
- Actionable alerts and embedded expertise so teams can stay ahead of new threats
- Accelerated incident response thanks to clear information visibility and embedded automation
