As-a-Service model simplifies your Rooms deployment

We are now offering BlueJeans Rooms-as-a-Service featuring Dolby Voice Room to help you easily equip your meeting rooms with our best-in-class room solution, with none of the hurdles that come with purchasing hardware. This offering is designed to be:

- Cost Conscious. Have the freedom to deploy as many BlueJeans Rooms as you need to meet your workplace transformation goals.
- Easy-to-Buy. Leverage a subscription model to eliminate the hassle of making large capital expenditures.
- All Inclusive and Predictable. Take advantage of a fixed monthly cost that includes service, warranty, hardware, support & management tools with no additional costs or hidden fees.

- Single Vendor. Experience the ease of having BlueJeans as your sole vendor responsible for sales, distribution and support, ensuring a unified approach from the first call, throughout the lifetime of the relationship.
- Peace of Mind, Guaranteed. Remove the administrative overhead that typically comes with maintaining hardware, firmware and software by providing advanced hardware replacement and firmware and software updates free of charge.
