

World Architecture Festival 2026

18-20 November

Fort Lauderdale

Awards entry guide

WAF returns to the USA

World Architecture Festival is back in the USA for a second year. After a standout debut with record participation from U.S. practices, the festival returns to the newly refurbished Broward County Convention Center in Fort Lauderdale, Florida – a stunning waterfront venue where cutting-edge event spaces meet beautiful beaches and a vibrant city energy.

Hear from last year's winners

Tell your story by entering your projects into the WAF awards. All finalists present their work in person to an international panel of leading architects and designers, making the process open, engaging, and highly respected. Recognised globally, WAF celebrates innovation, excellence, and the ideas shaping the future of the built environment.

“It’s an incredible gift that WAF has given to me. Of course it’s very important for me, but it is also very important for the neighbourhood of the church”

World Building of the Year 2025, The Holy Redeemer Church and Community Centre of Las Chumberas by Fernando Menis

Why enter the WAF awards?

Enhance your reputation and attract clients

- WAF is a globally recognised platform, providing unparalleled exposure to potential clients and collaborators worldwide.
- Winning a WAF award can significantly enhance your firm's reputation, positioning you as a leader in the industry.
- Participating at WAF can help you attract top talent who are passionate about working on impactful projects.

Learn more about how the WAF awards work in our short film:

Showcase your work and tell your story

- WAF's distinctive live judging allows you to showcase your projects to a global audience of industry professionals.
- By entering the awards, you can position your firm as a thought leader in innovative and sustainable design.

Celebrate and motivate your team

- Winning or even being shortlisted for a WAF award provides a tangible acknowledgment of your team's hard work, dedication, and creative vision.
- Public recognition can significantly boost team morale, fostering a sense of pride and accomplishment.

Build valuable connections

- WAF brings together the world's leading architects and industry professionals, creating valuable networking opportunities.
- The festival can help you connect with potential clients and collaborators who share your passion for design.

“It's the only architectural awards where you get to present your projects live, and that's pretty special”

Steve Melvin, Principal, Atelier Architecture + Design
