Awards entry guide

29 November –
1 December 2023

The world's largest live architecture awards

World Architecture Festival 2023 will take place on the 29 November to 1 December. At the heart of the festival sits a unique awards programme. Raise your profile and showcase your work at the world's largest live awards event for architects and designers.

- Celebrate your teams' achievements and hard work
- Demonstrate to clients that you are a global player
- Tell the world how proud you are of your work
- Be seen as a thought-leader in global design and innovation
- Prove that your practice is great to work for and work with
- Create an invaluable international network of clients and partners

“ I think of WAF as the architectural Olympics ”

Angus Campbell, Senior Partner, Foster+Partners

Why enter the awards?

- Present your project to WAF's esteemed international jurors. Discuss your design and use their feedback to strengthen your future work.
- Our finalists, judges and attendees span the globe. Develop an invaluable international network that you can seek advice from, partner with and win work from.
- Your project will be permanently listed on the worldbuildingsdirectory.com, the world's largest online directory of contemporary architecture.
- WAF generates 350 pieces of international press coverage each year. CNN, Al Jazeera, BBC, The New York Times, Domus Web and ArchDaily are just a few media outlets you will be seen in.
- The WAF jury consists of more than 150 industry experts. WAF's unique, rigorous judging process strengthens your credibility and sets you apart from the competition.
- Attend the festival to be inspired and expand your knowledge of your profession
- Increase your chances of winning at WAF by entering the Special Prizes and WAFX for free. Plus, all entrants from China will automatically be considered for the WAFChina awards for no extra fee

“ I love to judge these awards. If you’ve got a project you would like to share with more people then come to WAF ”

Cany Ash, Founder Partner, Ash Sakula Architects
