WELCOME

Dear Friends,

In 2025 we are excited to bring you the largest ever Women in Insurance Awards! It just goes to show how the industry was calling out for an event to celebrate the achievements of women in insurance when it launched seven years ago.

Each year we have seen the event snowball. This year it culminated in a staggering 4500 women being nominated and a further 1751 completing high-quality submissions. As you can imagine it has been a challenging task for the judges to whittle down all those entries to arrive at a winner for each category.

We'd like to say a huge thank you to our judging panel for their time and the rigour they approach the judging. Each one of them took the time to ensure we did justice to each carefully produced, heartfelt entry. Without our panel the event simply would not be possible.

And tonight, in a new, larger venue at Grosvenor House we have more than a thousand of you gathered to celebrate and shout about the achievements of women in what is still a male-dominated arena.

The popularity and growth of the awards underscores the need for a celebratory moment for the female stars of insurance and serves to highlight the importance of diversity in supporting a successful insurance ecosystem.

Highlighting excellence and achievement in this way plays a crucial role in the ongoing effort to promote equality across every area and role within the industry. While the insurance sector has made notable progress toward becoming a truly inclusive and equal-opportunity field, there is widespread recognition that more work remains to be done, particularly in closing the gender pay gap, addressing the diverse challenges women encounter in the workplace, and increasing female representation in senior leadership and board positions.

Once again, competition to be a finalist was intense and anyone who sees their name up on the big screen should be incredibly proud of their accomplishment. The individuals who reach finalist status stand out as exceptional role models and our winners should be hugely proud of their achievement.

Tonight is a celebration so we look forward to hearing plenty of cheers and applause as we congratulate the women who make insurance a vibrant, talented, impressive community.

Have a wonderful evening

WELLBEING
OF WOMEN

Transforming the future of women's health, changing lives today.

WE RESEARCH

all aspects of women's reproductive and gynaecological health throughout all stages of life. Our life-changing research offers hope for the future of every woman, girl and baby.

WE EDUCATE

women and girls so they are not disadvantaged by their gynaecological or reproductive health. We empower women with knowledge so they can confidently access the care and support they need.

WE CAMPAIGN

to cut through stigma and speak up about common yet neglected health conditions and issues. Our campaigns influence positive change to women's healthcare for the benefit of all.

HOST

CALLY BEATON

Cally Beaton is an author, comedian, keynote speaker, podcaster, awards host, business leader and entrepreneur. Well-known for being a natural storyteller, full of intelligent, distinctive and insightful material, Cally is one of the UK's most sought-after names for corporate, broadcasting and live comedy work.

Cally has held senior management positions at some of the biggest media companies in the world. Early in her career she headed an independent television production company that was bought by ITV, and went on to find herself the youngest and only female member of the board. She left to set up an award-winning creative consultancy company, Road Trip Media, and went on to do a ten-year stint as Senior Vice President at the US studio giant ViacomCBS.
